Frear, in which the plaintiff accused the defendant of over-driving a horse which he had hired him, came up before Justice Post on Thursday afternoon. Much contradictory evidence was given. The Justice reserved his decision.

A surprise party was tendered the Rev. Henry W. Seibert at the parsonage on Park Avenue on Thursday evening by the Young People's Society of the church. The pastor was presented with a beautiful picture. Ice cream and cake | Church performing the ceremony. were served after the presentation. The Fire Dapartment ordinance requires the closing of the fire-houses at 12 M. This is technically construed by some to apply only to the room in which the fire apparatus is kept, and it is contended will not apply to the parlors of Essex Truck Company or the parlors of the hose companies, providing gas is not burned at the town's expense.

This is the last week of the De Lavel Separator Works in Bloomfield. The works will be closed to-day, as most of the machinery has been moved to the new building in Poughkeepsie. Louis Hartman, the foreman, will open a machine shop in Philadelphia in a few weeks. New men have been secured to do the work at the new factory.

Division No. 2, Ancient Order of Hi bernians, of this town, will give their first grand annual picnic at Roseville Park next Thursday afternoon and evening. As the day draws near for the Truck Company's excursion the tickets begin to sell very rapidly. Nearly all the prominent business men in town on that day will close their places. Notices have been posted in the Consolidated Safety-Pin Co.'s works stating that upon that day the factory will be closed, thus enabling the employees to go on the excursion, an advantage they will no doubt avail themselves of.

A small party of Bloomfielders enjoyed a trip to Niagara Falls last week, and as the journey was long it was thought best to take a lunch. A practical joker in the party carefully inserted a thin The new Gamewell fire-alarm boxes strip of leather between the meat in one of the sandwiches and presented it to George Slater. It was only after Mr. Slater had made many attempts to force his teeth through the tough substance that he discovered the trick.
